About the Children's Museum Of Eastern Oregon

CMEO began in 1996 with the mission to provide children of all ages with opportunities for educational exploration and development through interactive exhibits and play. CMEO was created through the collaborative effort of over 300 community volunteers, and today has grown into an Eastern Oregon destination.

CMEO sparks inherent curiosity, creativity, and imagination in children of all ages. CMEO provides programs and interactive exhibits that go beyond the framework of entertainment to include both academic and real life skills. As the only Children's Museum in all of Eastern Oregon, CMEO has a high impact on many children and families. With over 14,000 visitors and 150 memberships a year families, childcare providers, and educators throughout the region depend on CMEO.

The museum relies largely upon donations from the community and local businesses to provide these services. Thank you to everyone who continues to support CMEO!
